Name _____ Date _____

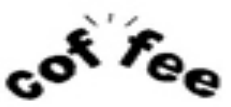
Subjects Meet Predicates

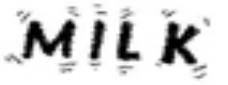
A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought. The subject tells who or what did something, and the predicate tells what happened.

Wordle

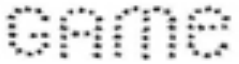
The spin doctors offered an interesting version of the event.
subject predicate

Figure out what each wordle means, and then use it as a sentence subject.
Match it to a predicate below.





_____ _____ _____ _____



_____ _____ _____ _____

1. _____ means an unsafe surface for skating.
2. _____ was thick, creamy, and delicious.
3. _____ will take place in the stadium tonight.
4. _____ creates all sorts of problems for authors.
5. _____ bloom throughout the spring.
6. _____ warns of heavy winds and rain.
7. _____ offers an opportunity for a quick morning snack.
8. _____ has four stop signs.

Write three complete sentences of your own.