

1. What does the girl and her dog represent part of the girl's world?

- A. Nature
- B. Family
- C. Society
- D. Architecture

2. What does the girl's relationship with her dog represent?

- A. Love
- B. Trust

3. What does the girl's dog represent?

- A. Nature
- B. Society
- C. Family
- D. Architecture

4. The girl's relationship with her dog represents part of the girl's world. What does the girl's dog represent? (Circle one)

5. What does the girl's dog represent?

- A. Nature
- B. Society
- C. Family
- D. Architecture

6. What does the girl's dog represent?

- A. Nature
- B. Society
- C. Family
- D. Architecture

7. What is different about the girl's world compared to the world of the other children?

- A. She has a dog.
- B. She has a different way of thinking.
- C. She has a different way of seeing the world.
- D. She has a different way of feeling.

8. In the story, what does the girl's dog represent? (Circle one)

9. What does the girl's dog represent?

- A. Nature
- B. Society
- C. Family
- D. Architecture

10. What does the girl's dog represent?

- A. Nature
- B. Society
- C. Family
- D. Architecture

11. What does the girl's dog represent?

- A. Nature
- B. Society
- C. Family
- D. Architecture

12. What does the girl's dog represent?

- A. Nature
- B. Society
- C. Family
- D. Architecture

13. What does the girl's dog represent?

- A. Nature
- B. Society
- C. Family
- D. Architecture

14. What does the girl's dog represent?

- A. Nature
- B. Society
- C. Family
- D. Architecture