A Royal Conversation

Pearl and Penny are two princesses. They wrote the following conversation for Lord Lachlan's language class. They left out the quotation marks and commas. Rewrite each sentence on the lines below. Add commas and quotation marks where needed.

I can hardly believe that summer is over and school is starting said Pearl sadly.
Penny asked Aren't you excited about being in Lord Lachlan's class this year? He's a great teacher.
I guess Pearl replied. She giggled and said I am much more excited about sitting next to the prince!
Penny smiled and said He is really nice. I hope we become friends.
Pearl added Have you seen his father's castle? It must be the biggest in the kingdom.
Pearl and Penny giggled. Penny said And he's really cute!
You're right! Pearl agreed. But I suppose we should focus on our work.
