Dramatic Structure

Instructions: Place the number of the story in the correct format.

The diagram illustrates the dramatic structure of a story. It features a large grey arch over a vertical bar. The arch is divided into three sections: 'Climax' at the top, 'Rising Action' on the left side, and 'Falling Action' on the right side. The vertical bar is divided into four sections: 'Exposition' at the bottom, 'Rising Action' in the middle, 'Climax' at the top, and 'Falling Action' at the bottom. Each section is represented by a rectangular box with a label in the top-left corner.
