

STUDENT _____

Human Anatomy & Physiology

Worksheet 16 Endocrine System

1. Not all _____ make women _____ and _____, and women aren't the only one who have _____. _____ / 30
2. A hormone is a _____ created by an _____ or _____ of the _____ system (usually an _____) that, after being _____ from an _____, is carried by the _____ to other _____, where the hormone _____ its _____. _____ / 50
3. The _____ is the body's system of _____ that _____ hormones. The _____ system and the _____ system work closely together to _____ your body's systems. _____ / 30
4. The _____ system controls _____ the _____ system should _____ or _____ hormones, and the hormones control the _____ within the body. _____ / 30
5. Figure 8-1 features an illustration highlighting the endocrine system. Using the appropriate handout, identify the various parts associated with this system, as shown in this illustration. _____ / 50
6. _____ in the _____ system produce two major classes of _____. Identify both and explain each. _____ / 40
7. _____ hormones, such as _____, _____, _____, _____, and _____ are the hormones that people most often think of as "_____" through the system or causing _____. _____ / 30
8. _____ hormones can be divided into four different types. Identify those and explain each. _____ / 50
9. Table 8-1 identifies a number of important hormones, their source, and their function. Choose any six of these hormones, explain their source, and their function, as featured in our text. _____ / 75