

Open the brackets, using Present/Past or Future Perfect.

1. I already (to do) my homework. Now I can go for a walk.
2. By this time next week Bill (to pass) the exam.
3. I hope it (to stop) snowing before we have to go.
4. I phoned to my friend to find out if he (to come) home.
5. Autumn (to come). It is October now.
6. The film (to start) when we came to the cinema.
7. The play (not to start) before we get to the theatre.
8. She told me she (to work) in France before.
9. When I arrived at the airport I realized that I (to forget) my passport.
10. My parents (not to buy) a new car by the end of the week.
11. Ben (not to write) the dictation yet.
12. When mother came, my sister already (to do) her homework.
13. After Jack (to find) his keys he went for a walk.
14. You ever (to be) to Kazan ?
15. The Greens (to finish) repairing their flat before summer.

Open the brackets, using Present/Past or Future Perfect.

16. I already (to do) my homework. Now I can go for a walk.
17. By this time next week Bill (to pass) the exam.
18. I hope it (to stop) snowing before we have to go.
19. I phoned to my friend to find out if he (to come) home.
20. Autumn (to come). It is October now.
21. The film (to start) when we came to the cinema.
22. The play (not to start) before we get to the theatre.
23. She told me she (to work) in France before.
24. When I arrived at the airport I realized that I (to forget) my passport.
25. My parents (not to buy) a new car by the end of the week.
26. Ben (not to write) the dictation yet.
27. When mother came, my sister already (to do) her homework.
28. After Jack (to find) his keys he went for a walk.
29. You ever (to be) to Kazan ?
30. The Greens (to finish) repairing their flat before summer.