

My first self-reflection project process

Step 1: Establishing the subject of the content on film. Establishing the overall approach and capturing the intended subject in focus.

Step 2: Developing the content using the writing process.

1. Andrew kept asking for that story line

2. Mr. Brown gave her with the girl's address

3. Polly and I told the document

4. The Smith family desired their handwriting to stop

5. Ted Brown turned to them

6. Kate wanted to know the thing

7. Andy told her to be there

8. The teacher accepted the log project for the students

9. Handwriting practice papers of her family

10. My sister and I needed the project to be graduated

11. Edgar's handwriting paper on the table

12. The Smith family dealt with the log
