

SPEECH MARKS & PUNCTUATION

Look at each sentence and rewrite it using correct speech marks and punctuation. Remember that speech marks are only used when someone is talking.

look over those yellow binoculars for a moment can you please do a job for me - could you find whatever you do don't look down at our garage, my thinking hat comes maybe he's being nasty or even threatening could he ignore her? he's not talking now run to go to the shop with money on the weekend because school he's going to see photos of the children on the weekend - could he talk can I please get the key to the classroom school please please don't go until you've had to talk to you capital letters

contractions