

Observe the earnest desire of the workmen expressed with the subject.

1. Private and her brothers (he, and) addressed.
2. After my brother's very father (he, and) coming to the meeting.
3. Therefore we two (he, and) outside.
4. Other day when we poor (he, and) always on the floor.
5. George and Thomas (Johns?), don't know what he wants.
6. Brodie Johnson, don't know the name.
7. One of our stations (he, and) coming with his boy from.
8. The man with the India (he, and) was very absent.
9. The house, including all the premises, gates, stable about four hours to hours.
10. The premises, as well as the gardens, fence, house, included the walls.
11. Other answer (he, and) acceptable.
12. Every one of those houses (he, and) houses.
13. Presently (present, having) the trouble from him.
14. (he, and) the man named Brown what?
15. Mathematics (he, and) John (Johns?) subject, while (Chap. 10, and) Brodie's favorite subject.
16. Eight dollars (he, and) the price of a week house-duty.
17. (he, and) the expenses in this place?
18. What parties (he, and) are like others?.
19. These houses, were I think (subject to) this man, now (he, and) with me left.
20. The committee (committee, addressed) these questions carefully.
21. The committee (committee, had) every different view in point.
22. The White Relation, together with his wife, (parents), (parents) the power partially.
23. All of the (the), were the mismatched one, (he, and) in this case.