

Measuring Angles

Angles are measured in degrees ($^{\circ}$).

Protractors are used to measure angles.

1. Place the center line (or tiny center hole) of the protractor directly on the vertex of the angle.

2. Make sure that the 0° line is along one side of the angle.

3. Read the scale that begins with 0° along the side of the angle.

