

Science Badge (Guides)

Find out about different habitats and some of the animals that live there.

This worksheet looks at animals in the Zoo which are specially adapted for life in

- Savannah (tropical grassland)
- Desert
- Tropical forest

Reptile Tropics

Choose the words that best describe Reptile Tropics.
(Tick more than one answer)

- humid (wet)
- dry
- luscious
- dusty
- loads of green plants
- noisy
- not many plants
- quiet
- warm
- cold
- bright
- dark

Which habitat is Reptile Tropics most like?

- desert
- savannah (tropical grassland)
- tropical forest

Desert House

Choose the words that best describe the Desert House. (Tick more than one answer)

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> humid (wet) | <input type="checkbox"/> dry |
| <input type="checkbox"/> luscious | <input type="checkbox"/> dusty |
| <input type="checkbox"/> loads of green plants | <input type="checkbox"/> noisy |
| <input type="checkbox"/> not many plants | <input type="checkbox"/> quiet |
| <input type="checkbox"/> warm | <input type="checkbox"/> cold |
| <input type="checkbox"/> bright | <input type="checkbox"/> dark |

Gila monster

The sign in the Desert House describe these lizards as dangerous.

Why are they dangerous?

Plants

Desert plants have special features to help them survive hot, dry conditions.

Tick the features listed below if you see them in plants in the Desert House.

(Tick more than one answer)

- barrel shaped
- thick spongy leaves
- no leaves
- tough waxy coat
- prickles
- leaves with holes

