

Identifying Sentence Fragments

Directions: Write the number of each sentence fragment or group of fragments that is underlined in the passage. Write the number of each sentence fragment or group of fragments that is not underlined in the passage.

- If there are no sentence fragments or groups of fragments in the passage, write 0.
- If there are no sentence fragments or groups of fragments in the passage, write 0.

1. It is a great pleasure to be back up to the mountains.
2. They should see the children going to school for the first time.
3. The state of the government's affairs is good.
4. It is a great pleasure to be back up to the mountains.
5. The children are going to school for the first time.
6. The state of the government's affairs is good.
7. It is a great pleasure to be back up to the mountains.
8. The children are going to school for the first time.
9. The state of the government's affairs is good.
10. It is a great pleasure to be back up to the mountains.
11. The children are going to school for the first time.
12. The state of the government's affairs is good.
13. It is a great pleasure to be back up to the mountains.
14. The children are going to school for the first time.
15. The state of the government's affairs is good.
16. It is a great pleasure to be back up to the mountains.
17. The children are going to school for the first time.
18. The state of the government's affairs is good.
19. It is a great pleasure to be back up to the mountains.
20. The children are going to school for the first time.
21. The state of the government's affairs is good.
22. It is a great pleasure to be back up to the mountains.
23. The children are going to school for the first time.
24. The state of the government's affairs is good.
25. It is a great pleasure to be back up to the mountains.
26. The children are going to school for the first time.
27. The state of the government's affairs is good.
28. It is a great pleasure to be back up to the mountains.
29. The children are going to school for the first time.
30. The state of the government's affairs is good.

Copyright © Pearson Education, Inc. or its affiliate(s). All rights reserved.