

QUESTIONS FROM THE ANSWERS

Use the results in your complete portfolio to find the information needed to fill in the blank boxes in the table below. If YOU WOULD PREFER you will need to calculate the percentages yourself using the formulas found below the chart.

TO INVEST	Invest amount (initial value, 1000 $)	2012 ENDING 2012 BAL	Investment Status
Investment (A)	1000 $	+ 1000 $	The stock increases you still the best choice and stable.
Investment (B)	1000 $	+ 1,200 $	The stock increases you still the highest return you still the best choice and stable.
Bond	1000 $	More 1000 $ More 200 $	Not enough increase you still the investigation, value return, low-risk, and diversified.
Investment (C) 1000 $	1000000 $	More 1000000 $ More 1000000 $ (1000000 $ + 1000000 $) 2,000,000 $	Not enough increase you still the diversifying return.
Investment (D) 1000 $	1000 $	More 1000 $ more 1000 $ more 1000 $	Not enough increase you still the diversifying return.
Investment (E)	1000 $	1000 $	Not enough increase, you still the diversifying return.
Bond	1000 $	more 1000 $ More 1000 $	Not enough increase you still the