

Easter

.....
 In many countries around the world Easter begins on Sunday, April 1. It is often a day of fun, games, parades and church services. Many countries have a story that relates to Easter having something to do with a rabbit or a hare.

Legend 1

One German legend about the egg symbolizes the fact that the earth was reborn from a great egg. In the time, centuries of darkness before the resurrection of Jesus, the world was a dark, cold, and lifeless place. The egg was the first sign of life and the beginning of the world.

Many other countries have their own egg myths. The egg was the first sign of life and the beginning of the world. The egg was the first sign of life and the beginning of the world.

Legend 2

There are many legends in the story of the Easter egg. Some are about the egg, and some are about the Easter Bunny. The egg was the first sign of life and the beginning of the world. The egg was the first sign of life and the beginning of the world.

Background of the Easter Bunny: The Easter Bunny is a symbol of new life and the beginning of the world. The egg was the first sign of life and the beginning of the world. The egg was the first sign of life and the beginning of the world.

Read and Write

1. Complete the sentences about the Easter Bunny.
 The Easter Bunny is a symbol of new life and the beginning of the world.

2. The Easter Bunny is a symbol of new life and the beginning of the world.

3. The Easter Bunny is a symbol of new life and the beginning of the world.

4. The Easter Bunny is a symbol of new life and the beginning of the world.

5. The Easter Bunny is a symbol of new life and the beginning of the world.

