

Activities	Key Stage 1	Key Stage 2
Pupils can: (a) copy printed or joined-up writing with control over size and shape and orientation of letters or lines of writing	21*	20*
(b) in their own writing, begin to form letters with some control over size, shape and orientation of writing in both print (with serifs) and joined-up	19*	19*
(c) begin to differentiate between the shapes of capital letters and small letters in both joined-up and print (with serifs)	14*	13*
(d) produce recognisably formed letters which have clear ascenders and descenders where necessary in both joined-up and print	16*	13*
(e) begin to join letters and write a simple joined-up hand	10	11*
(f) begin to space words appropriately in both print and joined-up writing	5	4
(g) produce clear and legible handwriting in printed style	3	4
(h) produce more fluent joined-up writing in independent work	8	9*
(i) begin to develop a personal cursive hand	2	0
(j) produce clear and legible handwriting in cursive style	3	7