

Lesson 10: Write your own questions on a story

Change the following questions into "Open Classes" as the "Subject of the sentence", adding all the necessary changes. "Open Classes" start with a "Question Word".

Open Class

Question Word + Statement + "Verb" + Complement

Example:

A: "Where did Peter go last night?" (is your friend?)
 B: "I am sorry, I don't know. Where did he go last night is a secret."

1. A: "When will the President come back to Turkey?" (is your friend?)
 B: _____ (is not certain)
2. A: "Why didn't she answer all the questions?" (is your friend?)
 B: _____ (is not obvious)
3. A: "Where did the children go?" (is your friend?)
 B: _____ (don't know)
4. A: "How has Cathy become rich? How do you get any idea?"
 B: _____ (is not very important)
5. A: "What does your father say?" (is your friend?)
 B: _____ (has nothing to do with us)
6. A: "What does your sister do to feel more free?" (is your friend?)
 B: _____ (is not of your business)
7. A: "What does Patricia love most? How do you get any idea?"
 B: _____ (are the secret of heart)
8. A: "What do you really want to be?" (is your friend?)
 B: _____ (is not sure)
9. A: "Where is the money coming from?" (is your friend?)
 B: _____ (is a big secret)
10. A: "When will the children come home? How do you get any idea?"
 B: _____ (don't know)
11. A: "Where does the boat leave from?" (is your friend?)
 B: _____ (is not known)
12. A: "What do you have next?" (is your friend?)
 B: _____ (is really uncertain)
13. A: "Why did the girls get married to Peter? How do you get any idea?"
 B: _____ (is a mystery)
14. A: "What did you really mean by that? Could you explain?"
 B: _____ (was not listening)
15. A: "Whoever caused the accident! It's impossible I will see!"
 B: _____ (will not)

Answers: