

Name _____ Date _____

Science Chapter 4 Section 5 Test – Classifying Animals

Directions: Classify the organisms that belong to the world in the first column. Write the letter in the blank.

- |                       |  |
|-----------------------|--|
| 1. _____ vertebrate   | a. animal that lives alone                     |
| 2. _____ invertebrate | b. live part of life in water and part on land |
| 3. _____ amphibian    | c. fly, tick, earthworm                        |
| 4. _____ fish         | d. consuming or reproducing things from groups |
| 5. _____ birds        | e. breathe through gills                       |
| 6. _____ vertebrate   | f. animal that lives almost land               |
| 7. _____ reptile      | g. have feet but use scales to breathe eggs    |

Directions: Write the correct answer from the box in the blank.

eggs	vertebrates	gills
worms	larva	larvae

8. Animals that have four limbs are called _____.
9. A reptile's skin is thick with _____ to hold the moisture in and keep the animal from becoming dried out.
10. A mammal's body is covered with _____.
11. Fish use their _____ to breathe underwater.
12. Fish, birds, reptiles, and amphibians all lay _____.
13. Insect is an _____ because it has a soft body with a protective shell, but no backbone.