

8th Grade Academic Vocabulary Test Group 9

Name _____

8 vocabulary words for a total

Monday, January 26, 2015

1. scientific notation

- a. a monomial or a sum of monomials, each of which is called a term
- b. a method of writing very large or very small numbers by using powers of 10
- c. a bar graph that show the frequency of data within equal intervals

2. inflation

- a. economic period of higher prices and lower wages
- b. moving from one place to another
- c. a state's declaration of a federal act (tariff) null and void within its borders

3. ordinance

- a. a state's declaration of a federal act (tariff) null and void within its borders
- b. a law or rule made by an authority, such as a city government
- c. moving from one place to another

4. participial phrases

- a. verbal forms that can function as an adjective or be used with an auxiliary to form certain tenses
- b. a memory aid, such as an abbreviation, rhyme, or mental image, that helps to remember something
- c. an official public announcement or declaration

5. peaceful resolution

- a. a state's declaration of a federal act (tariff) null and void within its borders
- b. solving a dispute happily
- c. an official public announcement or declaration

6. plate tectonics

- a. characteristics that describe the structure and behavior of atoms
- b. observed data recorded in text – such as color, taste, texture, or sound
- c. the concept that the Earth's surface is divided into plates that constantly move

7. polynomial

- a. a bar graph that show the frequency of data within equal intervals
- b. a method of writing very large or very small numbers by using powers of 10
- c. a monomial or a sum of monomials, each of which is called a term

8. positive correlation

- a. a monomial or a sum of monomials, each of which is called a term
- b. When two data sets have their data values increase or decrease together
- c. a method of writing very large or very small numbers by using powers of 10