

Directions: Think about what you have read. Answer the questions below.

- The two smaller boxes list details that support one of the main ideas of the passage. Which answer choice below best states the main idea that can be supported by these two details?
 - Ellis Island closed its doors in 1954.
 - Greater numbers of immigrants entered the United States.
 - It became more difficult for immigrants to enter the United States.
 - Thousands of visitors go to Ellis Island Immigration Station each year.
- Which answer choice below best describes any main ideas from the text?
 - After many years, it became harder for immigrants to enter the United States; Ellis Island Immigration Station became a museum.
 - Immigrants had to take physical exams in their home countries; The Literacy law was passed.
 - A law passed in 1917 stated that a new immigrant had to be able to read in their own language; Immigrants argued with citizens.
 - Ellis Island became a museum; Many people enjoy visiting Ellis Island Museum today.
- Which statement below best summarizes the whole informational article?
 - There were new laws formed in the United States.
 - As time went on, it became easier for immigrants to enter into the United States.
 - New laws made it harder to immigrate into the United States.
 - Ellis Island became a museum in the United States.
- What is the main idea of the first paragraph in this passage?
 - Many people love visiting Ellis Island Immigration Station Museum.
 - The Literacy Act was passed in 1917.
 - Ellis Island was open for sixty years.
 - There were problems between the citizens and the new immigrants.