Using Techniques for Conflict Resolution

Compromise: I Can Meet You in the Middle

Student _____ Group _____

Directions: With your group, look over the plans that you wrote for the following situation. How might these sides reach a compromise? Write your ideas below.

Situation Four: Your class is planning a field trip that will cost $5.00 per student. The school district is short on money so the teacher suggests that each student should pay his or her own way. The students who cannot bring $5.00 think that the school district should pay. A few students who are trying to be helpful suggest collecting and redeeming recyclable items to raise the money.
