

PRACTICE SOME GOOD ANSWERS FOR THESE INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

1. Tell me about yourself.
Notes:
2. Why should I hire you?
Notes:
3. What are your strengths? Your weaknesses?
Notes:
4. What is the most important thing that you have learned in school? Why?
Notes:
5. Where do you see yourself in 5 years? 10 years?
Notes:
6. There might be a lot of stress here. Can you handle it? How?
Notes:
7. How would your best friend describe you?
Notes:
8. Choose three words that could describe you.
Notes:

All employers look very closely for these qualities when they interview someone. The interview is the most important factor for entry-level workers.

Attitude gets you the job.

Training helps you advance.

Did the applicant:

- ✓ Give a clear introduction?
- ✓ Have a firm handshake?
- ✓ Make good eye contact?
- ✓ Seem to be interested?
- ✓ Seem self-confident?
- ✓ Know their strengths and weaknesses?
- ✓ Give examples in their answers?
- ✓ Answer all the questions?
- ✓ Ask good questions?