

Name: _____

Thomas Jefferson Memorial

The Thomas Jefferson Memorial was built in 1943 to honor President Jefferson. The memorial is located in Washington, D.C. The memorial is surrounded by steps and columns. The inside of the memorial has a large statue of Thomas Jefferson. The walls of the memorial are engraved with sections of letters Jefferson wrote and parts of the Declaration of Independence.

Many visitors visit the memorial each year to honor a great leader in American history.