

Math Word Problems

Many are word problems without words. They look quite long.

You need to read them with care to see what you need to do.

Your teacher or parent will help you how to read and your answers.

1. In 1996 people watched Major League Soccer plus Pigeon United last year. This year attendance there has gone down many watched the match this year?
2. On July 24th, a traffic survey revealed that 18,000 cars parked in Centre Street, On September 24th, 22,000 cars parked there. How many more cars did?
3. It rained for 100 people in minutes classes. What was the average duration?
4. Eleven branches of Spade and Adams had a total of 100,000 customers yesterday. What was the average number of customers per branch?
5. Every child can twenty-eight balls to make each child have thirty problems. If they have 17 balls each, how many balls would they make with these balls?
6. It teacher says 100 upon history books for twelve classes. How should the class get the books as fairly as possible?
7. Major League Soccer had a total attendance of 18,000,000 over twenty four matches. What was the average attendance per match?
8. It teacher can buy 1,000 books for a day on average. How many could he buy in five and a half days at the same rate?