Pop Quiz - Following Directions

Read everything on this paper before doing anything.

1. Put your name in the upper right hand corner of the paper.
2. Raise your left hand and make a circle in the air.
3. Stand and recite the Pledge of Allegiance.
4. Write the name of your school to the left of your name.
5. Draw a rectangle around the name of your school.
6. Loudly call out your first name when your get to this point of the test.
7. Print your first name backwards in the left hand corner of this page.
8. Stand up and sit back down.
9. Draw a triangle in the lower right hand corner of this page.
10. If you think you have carefully followed all the directions, call out, "I have."
11. In your indoor voice, count from 1 to 10 backwards.
12. Underline all the even numbers on the left side of the page.
13. Draw an arrow next to this direction.
14. Once you get to this place yell, "I'm almost done!"
15. Now that you have finished reading everything carefully only follow the directions for number one and then read number 16.
16. Some of your classmates may not have read all of the directions before beginning. Don't give it away! Pretend that you are still reading and writing on this piece of paper.