

Paragraph 1

The introductory paragraph should state the topic of the passage as described in the question.

- _____ Ⓐ The passage does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.
- _____ Ⓑ The author does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.
- _____ Ⓒ Although the author does present a topic, the author does not present a fully formed thesis statement.
- _____ Ⓓ Although the author does present a topic, the author does not present a fully formed thesis statement.
- _____ Ⓔ The text does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.

Paragraph 2

The second paragraph should be the first of the body paragraphs.

- _____ Ⓐ The text does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.
- _____ Ⓑ The text does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.
- _____ Ⓒ The text does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.
- _____ Ⓓ The text does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.
- _____ Ⓔ The text does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.

Paragraph 3

This paragraph should be the second of the body paragraphs.

- _____ Ⓐ The text does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.
- _____ Ⓑ The text does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.
- _____ Ⓒ The text does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.
- _____ Ⓓ The text does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.
- _____ Ⓔ The text does not present a fully formed thesis statement, but it does present a topic.