Overall impact on student's conduct grade _____

The Conduct Reflection form is used by _____ to help students reflect upon choices made in the classroom and to devise better solutions the next time such a situation should arise. The Conduct Reflection form is used to aid in the assessment of student behavior for conduct grades. Specialist teachers may, based on student actions, lower a conduct grade as part of the consequence of a Conduct Reflection form being completed by the student. In each and every case parents will be notified of any consequence that leads to the changing of a student's conduct grade.
