Teacher Interview Questions Worksheet

School:_____   Date: _____   Interviewer:_____

Design Rubric Best Practice	QUESTIONS	Notes/ Evidence
1.2e Technology is used to support instruction and decrease novice performance.	How do you use technological tools to increase student performance in core content?
1.3d PD occurs in a manner that allows instructional staff to support each other (i.e. peer observation, common planning, and modeling) in improving program implementation.	How does PD occur such that instructional staff are able to support each other in improving student core content learning?
4.2a Teachers collaboratively review and discuss individual student progress determining instructional and curricular modifications.	Discuss the process that you use to determine instructional or curricular modifications.
4.2b Teachers modify/ re-teach lessons and students are regrouped for instruction based on assessment data, student learning needs, and walk-through and observation feedback.	• What information do you use to determine the need to modify or re-teach lessons? • How do you modify lessons based on this information (give example)?
4.2c Staff reviews results of modification of lessons, re-teaching of skills, and regrouping of students to determine effectiveness of practices and re-adapts as necessary to ensure student achievement.	How do you determine if the lessons you have modified have had the expected impact?	