

21

1. Complete each sentence with a form of the verb in parentheses.

22 I like staying (stay) but I don't think much of sleep (sleep).

23 I love (love) to swim but I don't like to run (run).

24 What would you like to do this evening (do) ?
I would like to go (go) to the cinema.

25 How does your father feel (feel) ?
He feels happy (feel) but he doesn't like (like) to go to the party.

26 I thought I was going to go (go) but I just found out that my brother was (be) sick.

27 She wasn't able to go (go) to the match because she wasn't (be) well.

28 My brother isn't going to go (go) to the match because he isn't (be) well.

29 Generally people don't like to go (go) to the match when it isn't (be) well.

30 She isn't going to go (go) to the match because she isn't (be) well.

31 She isn't going to go (go) to the match because she isn't (be) well.

32 Please be sure to go (go) to the match when it isn't (be) well.

2. Complete the sentences, using a word that has the same meaning as the word in bold.

33 I love going to the cinema. (like) I like going to the cinema.

34 He hates going to the cinema. (dislike) He dislikes going to the cinema.

35 She loves going to the cinema. (adore) She adores going to the cinema.

36 I love going to the cinema. (adore) I adore going to the cinema.

37 He hates going to the cinema. (dislike) He dislikes going to the cinema.

3. Complete each sentence with a form of the verb in parentheses, and use the word in bold to give the opposite. Do not change the form of the verb.

- 38 I love going to the cinema. I dislike going to the cinema.
- 39 He hates going to the cinema. He likes going to the cinema.
- 40 She loves going to the cinema. She dislikes going to the cinema.
- 41 I love going to the cinema. I dislike going to the cinema.
- 42 He hates going to the cinema. He likes going to the cinema.