

PASSIVE VERBS

(Remember: subject + auxiliary + verb + verb + object)

Form	Structure	Example
Present Simple	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	Family is always well-behaved.
Present Continuous	Subject + am + verb + object	My wife is working at the bank.
Present Perfect	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The office has got the report finished.
Present Perfect Continuous	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	She has been going to her friend's house.
Future Simple	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	They will be celebrating their wedding.
Future Continuous	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	My children will be going to school.
Future Perfect	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	He will have finished his homework by 10.
Future Perfect Continuous	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	She will have been waiting for you since.
Present Passive	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	My house is being decorated.
Present Passive Continuous	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house has already been decorated.
Future Passive	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house will be decorated by 10.
Future Passive Continuous	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house will have been decorated by 10.
Present Passive Perfect	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house has been decorated.
Present Passive Perfect Continuous	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house has been being decorated.
Future Passive Perfect	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house will have been decorated.
Future Passive Perfect Continuous	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house will have been being decorated.

See 1.1.1.1 for more details.