

Word Families

A. Test your knowledge of words by choosing the correct option for each gap.

- excite excitement exciting excited excitedly

'Don't the children before bedtime,' she said, but it was too late. They were already They ran to meet their father Their father asked, 'What's all this about?' 'Flying for the first time is so,', they replied.
- financed finances financial financially

I was always good at managing my My parents my studies at university and now I work as a advisor for a bank. I give advice to people who have suddenly become secure after winning the lottery.
- succeed success successful successfully

If you want to run a business, you have to work hard. salesmen do not just wait for to arrive but take action to make sure they
- offend offence offensive offensively

Some people on holiday abroad speak very about the people and country they are visiting and even seem to enjoy giving These people really make me angry. When I go abroad I always try not to the local people.
- intended intentions intentional intentionally

He to be early for the meeting but his good were worthless because he was involved in an accident on his way to the office. It seemed as if the other driver had, swerved into his car although she denied it was