

NAME _____

SUBJECT-VERB AGREEMENT

Write the subject with subject-verb agreement in the following sentences. Write the subject, verb, and predicate. Underline the subject-verb agreement in each sentence. Write the subject, verb, and predicate in the space provided.

Exercise: "The Way It Was"

I spent years in the hills you can see today.
I never knew the hills were there.
But together we built the perfect hill house.

Exercise: "The Way It Was"

I spent years in the hills you can see today.
I never knew the hills were there.
But together we built the perfect hill house.

Exercise: "The Way It Was"

I spent years in the hills you can see today.
I never knew the hills were there.
But together we built the perfect hill house.

Exercise: "The Way It Was"

I spent years in the hills you can see today.
I never knew the hills were there.
But together we built the perfect hill house.

Exercise: "The Way It Was"

I spent years in the hills you can see today.
I never knew the hills were there.
But together we built the perfect hill house.

Exercise: "The Way It Was"

I spent years in the hills you can see today.
I never knew the hills were there.
But together we built the perfect hill house.

Exercise: "The Way It Was"

I spent years in the hills you can see today.
I never knew the hills were there.
But together we built the perfect hill house.

Exercise: "The Way It Was"

I spent years in the hills you can see today.
I never knew the hills were there.
But together we built the perfect hill house.

Exercise: "The Way It Was"

I spent years in the hills you can see today.
I never knew the hills were there.
But together we built the perfect hill house.

Exercise: "The Way It Was"

I spent years in the hills you can see today.
I never knew the hills were there.
But together we built the perfect hill house.
