

Name _____

UNIT 10
Test

Date _____

Match the names with the definitions by writing the letter of the word in the space provided.

- | |
|--|
| A. post B. hazard C. main D. impact force E. post F. wind
G. weathering H. erosion I. deposition J. worldwide erosion |
|--|

1. _____ A narrow flat surface beyond a broad, gently sloped
2. _____ A type of land that is a result of erosion of a mountain
3. _____ The of depositing materials from a higher elevation
4. _____ The breaking down of rocks by weathering, water, wind, and ice
5. _____ The type of material in a copy of scientific paper
6. _____ The that is a combination of wind, water, and waves
7. _____ The movement of material such as different places for water, wind or ice
8. _____ A type of land that is a consequence of soil erosion as well as other weathering
9. _____ Includes the wind, weathering, ice of deposits and erosion
10. _____ The dropping off of rock formations

Circle the letter of the correct answer.

11. Which is most commonly a hazard?

- A. snow
- B. mud
- C. wind
- D. waves

12. Many people describe an island called Hong Kong as the "Pearl of the East".

- A. It has a very beautiful view of the ocean.
- B. It has a very beautiful view of the island.
- C. It has the highest mountain in the world.
- D. It has a very beautiful view of the city.

13. A large landform slowly becomes small over hundreds of years. How did this occur, change occur?

- A. Erosion broke it down.
- B. Sediment was built up on it.
- C. It had a very high mountain.
- D. Wind had not weathered it.