

Diamante Poem

by: _____

Here are two examples, both about Panda bears. The first has one subject (panda):

sing-man
black, white
sitting, peeling, eating
misty mountains bamboo forest
feeding peeling chewing
bear cat
panda

This one has two subjects, pandas and bamboo. The subject changes in the middle of the 4th line:

panda
black, white
sitting, peeling, eating
misty mountains bamboo forest
growing, shooting, reaching
green, tender
bamboo

Now make your own!

Line 1: a noun that
names your subject:

_____

Line two: two adjectives which
describe your subject:

_____

Line three:
three verbs:

Line four:
four words:

Line five:
like line three:

Line six:
like line two:

Line seven:
like line one:

_____