

A black and white cartoon illustration of a penguin standing on a small patch of ground. The penguin has a large, pointed beak and a single large eye. Above its head is a large, cloud-like thought bubble containing text. Three small circles lead from the penguin's head to the thought bubble. The signature 'GLASBERGEN' is written on the ground to the left of the penguin.

PENGUINS ARE BLACK AND WHITE.
SOME OLD TV SHOWS ARE BLACK AND WHITE.
THEREFORE, SOME PENGUINS ARE OLD TV SHOWS.

GLASBERGEN

Logic: another thing that penguins aren't very good at.
