

PHRASE CARDS- 1 sheet per group

Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer	The bulldozer clamped his teeth on the trees.	The book dropped with a loud thud!	You are running around like a chicken with its head cut off!	Even the tulips stood up proud and tall when the American flag was raised.
Time is money.	The spider web was a lacy tablecloth that spread over the grass.	The cold air slapped me in the face.	It's as happy as a wolf!	His handwriting was nothing but chicken scratches on the page.
Thump, thump, thump went his heart.	Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers.	Life is like a box of chocolates.	The whoosh of the wind startled us.	The world is a stage, and the men and women are merely players.
Sing a song of six-pence	The screech of the screen door slamming hurt my ears.	The big couch cushions swallowed up the girl taking a nap.	Georgie Porgie pudding pie	My feet are as cold as ice
He ran like he was shot out of a cannon.	The words just leapt out of my mouth.	Wee Willie Winkle runs through the town.	The chains clanked against the fence post.	Your eyes are windows into your soul.