Life in the Village

Study the map and the key.

The map shows a village layout with a river on the left, a stream on the right, and a council house in the center. Homes are represented by circles, and various crops like corn, beans, and squash are shown. A compass rose indicates North, South, East, and West. The map is titled 'Cherokee Village' and includes a 'Map Key' with symbols for river, stream, council house, home, corn, beans, and squash. Below the map, there are five numbered directions for a student to follow.
