

12 Adjectives

Add the most appropriate adjective to the gap!

1. The Governor gave the prisoners a _____ look.
2. Mr Jones is always on time for his 5pm badminton class; he is very _____.
3. The undertaker wore a _____ expression while the coffin was lowered.
4. In order to be successful teacher you need to be _____, ready to listen again and again.
5. Stefan was _____ in asking Juliet to marry him.
6. The new Year 2 teacher was welcoming and _____ to her new pupils.
7. The shopkeeper gave me £20 change instead of £10. I was _____ and gave him back the extra £10.
8. My secretaries are so _____; they typed out the letters and filed them only one hour after I asked them!
9. I loved the guided tour of London; I learnt a lot - it was so _____.
10. The policeman was _____ when reading out the charges.
11. My car is not very _____, it has broken down three times in the last year.
12. When I was lost in Brighton, an old lady showed me on the map where to go; she was very _____.

efficient	official	reliable	friendly
bold	stern	honest	sombre
informative	helpful	patient	punctual

A.Stockwell 2011