

Pronoun/Antecedent Agreement Worksheet

Correct, add, change as needed. Some sentences may be correct as they are.

1. One of the boys had tears in their eyes.
2. Somebody left their books on the counter.
3. A student should see an advisor if they have any questions.
4. A student should see an advisor if you have questions.
5. Many of us love the movies but you seldom have time to go to them.
6. Everyone has his or her own way of studying.
7. Teachers are responsible for providing their students with accurate grades.
8. Someone had blocked the driveway with their car.
9. When I asked why I failed the test, he said that I had not studied the proper material.
10. Each woman must do their best to take care of their health.
11. Each of the apartment owners had his or her apartment repainted.
12. As the weather got colder everyone wished they had brought a coat.
13. Bob was angry when they elected the wrong candidate.
14. Jill told Meagan that she had to get more sleep.
15. A person needs to learn how to read or you will not do very well in school.