

ISLAMIC VOICE

Volume 1, Issue 1, 1992
Published by the Islamic Voice Foundation
10000 North 10th Street, Suite 100
Seattle, WA 98178
Phone: (206) 735-1111
Fax: (206) 735-1112

Mumbai Violence

Cop on the Chopping Block

The 200th anniversary of the British Raj is being celebrated in Mumbai, India, but the city is also the scene of a violent clash between Muslims and Hindus.

By M. A. Lattimer
Mumbai, India, is celebrating the 200th anniversary of the British Raj. The city is also the scene of a violent clash between Muslims and Hindus. The violence began on August 12, when a Hindu nationalist group, the Bajrang Dal, attacked a mosque in the city. The mosque was set on fire and the people inside were injured. The violence spread to other parts of the city and resulted in the deaths of several people. The Indian government has taken steps to restore law and order, but the violence has not stopped.

The violence in Mumbai is part of a larger movement of Hindu nationalism in India. The Bajrang Dal is a Hindu nationalist group that has been active in attacking mosques and other religious sites. The group has been accused of violence against Muslims and other minorities. The Indian government has taken steps to curb the violence, but the Bajrang Dal continues to be active. The violence in Mumbai is a reminder of the religious tensions that exist in India.

The violence in Mumbai is a reminder of the religious tensions that exist in India. The Bajrang Dal is a Hindu nationalist group that has been active in attacking mosques and other religious sites. The group has been accused of violence against Muslims and other minorities. The Indian government has taken steps to curb the violence, but the Bajrang Dal continues to be active. The violence in Mumbai is a reminder of the religious tensions that exist in India.

Mosque in Mumbai, India.

The violence in Mumbai is a reminder of the religious tensions that exist in India. The Bajrang Dal is a Hindu nationalist group that has been active in attacking mosques and other religious sites. The group has been accused of violence against Muslims and other minorities. The Indian government has taken steps to curb the violence, but the Bajrang Dal continues to be active. The violence in Mumbai is a reminder of the religious tensions that exist in India.

The violence in Mumbai is a reminder of the religious tensions that exist in India. The Bajrang Dal is a Hindu nationalist group that has been active in attacking mosques and other religious sites. The group has been accused of violence against Muslims and other minorities. The Indian government has taken steps to curb the violence, but the Bajrang Dal continues to be active. The violence in Mumbai is a reminder of the religious tensions that exist in India.

Mosque Saved From Going Babri Way

By M. A. Lattimer
A mosque in Mumbai, India, has been saved from being demolished. The mosque was threatened by a Hindu nationalist group, the Bajrang Dal, which wanted to demolish it. The Indian government has taken steps to protect the mosque and has ordered the Bajrang Dal to stop its activities. The mosque is now safe and the violence has stopped.

The mosque in Mumbai is a reminder of the religious tensions that exist in India. The Bajrang Dal is a Hindu nationalist group that has been active in attacking mosques and other religious sites. The group has been accused of violence against Muslims and other minorities. The Indian government has taken steps to curb the violence, but the Bajrang Dal continues to be active. The mosque in Mumbai is a reminder of the religious tensions that exist in India.

"Doublespeak on Statues Issue": Dr. Naik

By M. A. Lattimer
Dr. Naik has criticized the government's handling of the statues issue. He has accused the government of "doublespeak" and has called for a more open and honest discussion of the issue. He has also called for the government to take steps to protect the statues and to ensure that they are not damaged or destroyed.

Dr. Naik has criticized the government's handling of the statues issue. He has accused the government of "doublespeak" and has called for a more open and honest discussion of the issue. He has also called for the government to take steps to protect the statues and to ensure that they are not damaged or destroyed.

Dr. Naik has criticized the government's handling of the statues issue. He has accused the government of "doublespeak" and has called for a more open and honest discussion of the issue. He has also called for the government to take steps to protect the statues and to ensure that they are not damaged or destroyed.

Cipla's AIDS Drug Commuting the Death Sentence

Indian pharma company Cipla challenges the Western Pharma cartel by supplying AIDS drug at prices 50 to 60 times less

By M. A. Lattimer
Cipla, an Indian pharmaceutical company, has challenged the Western pharmaceutical cartel by supplying AIDS drugs at prices 50 to 60 times less than the Western companies. Cipla has accused the Western companies of price fixing and has called for a more competitive market for AIDS drugs.

Cipla, an Indian pharmaceutical company, has challenged the Western pharmaceutical cartel by supplying AIDS drugs at prices 50 to 60 times less than the Western companies. Cipla has accused the Western companies of price fixing and has called for a more competitive market for AIDS drugs.

Cipla, an Indian pharmaceutical company, has challenged the Western pharmaceutical cartel by supplying AIDS drugs at prices 50 to 60 times less than the Western companies. Cipla has accused the Western companies of price fixing and has called for a more competitive market for AIDS drugs.

Cipla, an Indian pharmaceutical company, has challenged the Western pharmaceutical cartel by supplying AIDS drugs at prices 50 to 60 times less than the Western companies. Cipla has accused the Western companies of price fixing and has called for a more competitive market for AIDS drugs.