

Plant Nutrition

- Plants use _____ that come from the sun to make their own food.
- Plants make food through a process called _____.
- If photosynthesis, plants need _____ and _____.
- Water and nutrients are absorbed by the _____. This substance is called _____.
- Photosynthesis takes place in the _____.
 - The tree can't breath if the _____ dries out.
 - _____ is absorbed from the air through tiny _____ in the leaves.
 - Leaves contain green substance, _____ which captures the sun's energy.
 - The _____ will be transformed by the _____ into _____.
 - _____ contains _____ which the plant uses for food. It moves through the _____ to other parts of the plant.
 - _____ is also produced during this process. It is released into the air through the _____.

