

Verbs, verbs and adjectives

Verbs are action words. They describe activities, events, processes and change.

Verbs are doing words. They tell what is happening.

Adjectives are describing words. They tell you more about things.

- Color all rectangles with verbs from blue.
- Color all rectangles with adjectives from green.
- Color all rectangles with adjectives in italics.