

Phrasal Verbs

Put these phrasal verbs into the correct form, following verbs. Don't forget to conjugate them in the past!

know – love – like – be – grow – get – meet – put – take – see – teach – wait

Put these verbs into paragraphs in the right order!

1) I know that my dog is loving his new owner because they took care of him.

2) I think she is teaching the new students. The teacher met the students in the school and she was kind to them.

3) I know she is loving her new job because she met the new people that took care of her at the hospital.

4) The teacher met the new students in the school. The new students took care of the teacher. They were kind to her.

5) I know that the teacher loves her job because she met the new students that took care of her in the school. They were kind to her.

6) I know that the teacher loves her job because she met the new students that took care of her in the school. They were kind to her. I know that the teacher loves her job because she met the new students that took care of her in the school. They were kind to her.

7) I know that the teacher loves her job because she met the new students that took care of her in the school. They were kind to her. I know that the teacher loves her job because she met the new students that took care of her in the school. They were kind to her.