

Child-Rearing Behavior: Elementary School

11. Below are fifteen possible goals (e.g., better behavior at school and better academic achievement) you have set for yourself. Indicate the importance of your goal by marking the following corresponding four circles ranging from your lowest priority:

1.	2.
3.	4.
5.	6.
7.	8.
9.	10.
11.	12.
13.	14.
15.	16.

12. Below are ten personal-social goals. Answer the questions and list them in the following boxes.

a. Personal health problems _____

b. Personal social relationships problems _____

Choosing three most important goals for the future you estimate have a chance of 50% chance:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

13. What are the difficulties you expect from being a child raising your elementary school children? Write down:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

14. Please indicate the right degree to consider your ability to achieve these goals:

1. a. property management (rental, repair, storage, sale or buying, clean, maintain, etc.)
2. b. Other _____

15. Please write your own child raising motto: