

Math Comments

- ... tends to memorize his/her basic addition and subtractive facts.
- ... has a solid understanding of all math concepts taught so far this year.
- ... has difficulty understanding and solving word problems.
- ... tends to practice reading time on using clocks.
- ... tends to practice counting money.
- ... is solid and accurate on his/her work (grade) if he/she memorizes his/her basic multiplication and division facts.

Math homework assignments are often handed in late or incomplete.

- ... tends to give dates and check his/her work carefully.
- ... seems to understand concepts taught, but often makes careless mistakes.
- ... is an excellent mathematician.
- ... is able to follow mathematical processes, but has difficulty explaining how answers are derived.
- ... could benefit from attending structured math help sessions.
- ... is unable to read and write large numbers over lessons.
- ... has difficulty with math concepts that involve higher problem-solving.
- ... has difficulty with multiplication math problems.