

Vocabulary List- Paper Mache

Symmetrical Balance- when two sides of an artwork are identical

Relief – a type of sculpture in which forms project from a background

Armature- the framework used to support and shape materials for sculpture

Paper-mache`- a technique of creating three-dimensional or relief sculpture by molding strips of paper soaked in glue or paste

Sculpture- three-dimensional forms created by assemblage, carving, or modeling

Asymmetrical Balance- feeling of balance in a an artwork obtained when the two sides are not identical yet seem to be equal

Rhythm- a principal of design that refers to appearance of movement in a an artwork through repetition, and pattern

Traditional Art- artwork that is familiar to the public in style, form or subject matter

Variety- an element of design used to make an artwork more interesting

Craftsmanship- quality of an object, its materials and the skill with which it was made