

Writing Exercise
Should

"Should" is a modal auxiliary which you give a person advice about something they should do.

Question: You + should + not + an action
Subject + verb + at first

Answer: _____ + should + I + verb + not
Question Subject have verb

Try practicing with:

Meaning	Verb	Form	Example	Meaning	Verb
to be angry	to be angry	am/are	I am angry.	to be angry	am/are

- Question: My car is broken.
Answer: You should _____.
- Question: You are late because I did not sleep good last night.
Answer: You should _____.
- Question: There is no food in the house.
Answer: _____.
- Question: I am always late when working.
Answer: _____.
- Question: My car is almost out of gas.
Answer: _____.
- Question: My house is messy. I will never wash it.
Answer: _____.