

1. Match the italicized words in the passage with the meaning words.

As a general description the country is deserted. It is a flat, open country with very few hills. There are many small towns and villages scattered throughout the land. The country is very dry and the climate is very hot. There are many small towns and villages scattered throughout the land. The country is very dry and the climate is very hot.

The country is very dry and the climate is very hot. There are many small towns and villages scattered throughout the land. The country is very dry and the climate is very hot. There are many small towns and villages scattered throughout the land. The country is very dry and the climate is very hot.

The country is very dry and the climate is very hot. There are many small towns and villages scattered throughout the land. The country is very dry and the climate is very hot.

2. Match the italicized names with the questions.

What is the population of London, England?
 – What does Londoner live like?

– What is the population of London, England?

– What are the population and the climate of London, England?

3. Match the names and fill in the gaps with the meaning words given below.

There is a new type of technology. The new type of technology is very new. The new type of technology is very new. The new type of technology is very new. The new type of technology is very new.
