

Writing Prompt Topics

- Describe what you remember about your first day of school.
- Describe your favorite part of school.
- Write about your best friend or friends.
- Write about your greatest memory of your school life
- Write about your goals for the future
- Write about what you would like to thank your parents for.
- Write about yourself through the years. You may wish to do a page for a group of grades.
- Write about your lucky number.
- Write about your favorite book.
- Write about your favorite subject in school.
- Write about your hobbies / pastimes.
- Write about your likes and dislikes.
- Write about your favorite music or group.
- Write about your favorite actor / actress.
- Write about your favorite movie.
- Write about your family. You may write a paragraph for each person.
- Write about your best trip / outing.
- Write about your favorite sport.
- Write about your favorite or best remembered school trip.
- Write about your best elective memory.
- Write about what you did yesterday.
- Write about how your day is going.
- Write about what you've learned in school today.
- Write about a fun day you've had this week.
- Write about what you will do today after school.
- Write about your best friend. What makes your friend so special?
- Write about a talent you have.
- Write about a talent your best friend has.
- Should animals be used to test new products?
- Should cell phones be allowed in class?
- Should beaches have rules?
- Should children be allowed to enter beauty pageants?
- Do police belong in schools?
- Should boxing be banned?
- Should hunting be banned as a sport?
- Should teen criminals be locked up in adult prisons?
- Should the government rate music?
- Are teen juries a good idea?
- Is space exploration worth the money we spend on it?
- If you find $100, is it yours to keep?
- Are teen curfews a good thing?
- Is year-round school a good idea?