

Capital letters and full stops

- Capital letters are used for names (nouns) and the beginning of sentences.
- Re-write this passage in your book and insert the missing full stops and missing capital letters.

it was a freezing cold day It had been snowing all night in london tom and i went outside to play in the fresh snow we hadn't seen this much snow since we went skiing in france last year Uncle toby was right when he said that we would wake up this morning and see white

Capital letters and full stops

- Capital letters are used for names (nouns) and the beginning of sentences.
- Re-write this passage in your book and insert the missing full stops and missing capital letters.

it was a freezing cold day It had been snowing all night in london tom and i went outside to play in the fresh snow we hadn't seen this much snow since we went skiing in france last year Uncle toby was right when he said that we would wake up this morning and see white