

Value - Tints & Shades - Monochromatic Colors

Student's Name: _____
Today's Date: _____	Art Period: _____	Student's Grade Level: 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th

Use pencil points to complete the following exercises.

Value: the lightness to darkness of a hue.

Monochromatic Colors are all the colors (hue) and shades of a single hue.

• Tint is a hue (a color) + white added

• Shade is a hue (a color) + black added

White	White + White + white	White + White equal proportions	White + White + white	White
White	White + Yellow + hue	White + Yellow equal proportions	White + Yellow + white	Yellow
White	White + Orange + hue	White + Orange equal proportions	White + Orange + white	Orange

• Shade is a hue (a color) + black added

• Shade is a hue (a color) + black added

White	White + Black + black	White + Black equal proportions	White + Black + black	Black
Yellow	Yellow + Black + black	Yellow + Black equal proportions	Yellow + Black + black	Black
Orange	Orange + Black + black	Orange + Black equal proportions	Orange + Black + black	Black